1. The Central and South China Military and Administrative Committee and the Central and South China Military Area Command have decided to relocate military and government offices of the Central and South China area in the Hungehan (宜昌) area of Szechang (11b-17, 30-32). The Wuhan Municipal Government has announced the boundaries of this area as east to Cha Yeh Kan, west to the Canton-Hankow Railway, south to include the entire Hungehan area, and north to the Tung Fu Sanitarium.
2. The building program includes offices for all agencies of the Central and South China Military and Administrative Committee, principal officials of the Military Area Command and for agencies under their direct control, and the Central and South China Political Bureau; buildings for military and political training organizations; and repair plants for the Air Force. The building program is scheduled to begin in July 1951, and all buildings belonging to civilians in the area must be removed before 1 July.
